

Top Five Places to Haunt Before Halloween

The days are getting shorter, and a little colder, but there are still plenty of festive things to do while in Hudson, Wisconsin. Whether you are brave enough to venture into the woods for a good chill down your spine, or would rather stay warm inside with a cocktail, Hudson is the place to be.

1. SPOOKY NOCTURNAL ANIMAL HIKE

For those who are not afraid of the dark, come explore the Willow River State Park on Saturday, October 24th to find out what those spooky noises are in the woods. You will be guided through the woods with a Naturalist and then sent on a scavenger hunt. Don't forget to bring your flashlight! For more details, visit the Facebook event.

Hosted by Friends of Willow River and Kinnickinnic State Parks, Inc. (@WRSPKSP)

2. GRAVEYARD TOUR

Have no fear, this tour of the 170-year-old Willow River Cemetery is given under the comforts of daylight on Saturday, October 24th. Hosted by the Octagon House Museum, find out more about Hudson's legacies, rumors, and little-known speculations. Call or email to reserve your tickets.

octagon@stcroixcountyhistory.org | (715) 386-2654

3. CANINES AND WINES

Get ready to howl for the hounds at Cracked Barrel Winery on October 25th! This annual event is hosted by Coco's Heart Dog Rescue and will include dogs in costumes, food, wine, music, crafts, and more! For more information visit the event page on Facebook.

Hosted by Coco's Heart Dog Rescue (@cocosheartdogrescue)

4. TRIVIA NIGHTS AT HOP & BARREL

Warm up your brain and quench your thirst at Hop & Barrel's Trivia Nights. Trivia will be hosted by Robert Baril from 7pm-9pm in the Taproom. To see what other events are coming up, check out their Facebook page!

@hopandbarrelbrewing

5. LIVE MUSIC AT URBAN OLIVE & VINE

Treat your ears to some live music at Urban, Olive, & Vine. No matter what your taste is there is a variety of artists to choose from including Terry Bailey for anything from Jazz to Pop, Anne Deming for some soulful melodies, or Empire Night for some pop-folk, 90s music, or even country. To see what the flavor of the week is, visit their Facebook page.

@urbanoliveandvine 